

ARUNACHAL FRONT

The People's Daily

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"Free speech carries with it some freedom to listen."
- Warren E. Burger

70 million piped water connection in 3 years, milestone achieved: PM | P5

Candidates with political leaning heat up football turf war | P8

Max: 34°C
Min: 25°C
Sunrise | 4:49 am Sunset | 5:49 pm

NAHARLAGUN / ITANAGAR | SATURDAY | 20 AUGUST | 2022

elaborated about what he thought was the meaning of the fading heritage topic white paste on their faces, which was a part of the Galo tradition.

and the old adage of survival of the fittest adheres in such situations," he said.

organised by the Directorate of Information and Public Relations, government a traditional attire fashion show was also shown by the students of RGU.

He said this while attending the inauguration programme of a private bank in Nirjuli.

bank staff to attract the customers and provide better services to them.

He also urges the bank's staff and customers to cooperate with each other for the smooth functioning of the bank.

Arunachal Chamber of Commerce and Industries

NIT Arunachal Pradesh joins webinar on potential of millets

Institute of Technology (NIT), Arunachal Pradesh highlighted the calendar activities such as millets food competitions, establishing millets bazaars at NIT Arunachal Pradesh, training programmes for farmers who cultivate millets, collecting millet products and so on, said the statement.

Dr. Parimal Chandra Bhattacharya, former Professor and Head, Department of Zoology, Gauhati University, Assam felicitated the event and articulated the significance of the millets in the Northeast region.

Participants from Vijanana Bharati (VIBHA) - North East Science Movement (NESM), faculty members, staff and students from NIT, Arunachal Pradesh and from various Northeast higher educational institutes participated and made the session more interactive.

The special talk was co-ordinated by Dr. Saikat Kumar Jana, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Biotechnology and Dr. K. Vijayakumar, Assistant Professor of Management and Humanities, NIT Arunachal Pradesh.

NAHARLAGUN, Aug 19: A special lecture talk on 'Potential of millets' was organised by the National Institute of Technology (NIT) in collaboration with Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat Club, NIT Arunachal Pradesh, and Vijanana Bharati (VIBHA) - North East Science Movement (NESM) on Friday.

The awareness programme was conducted in virtual mode.

The special lecture was organized as the mark of observation and celebration of the International Year of Millets 2023.

According to a statement, the programme was an initiative of the Ministry of Education to make the day a people's movement and to create awareness on the health benefits of mil-lets and their suitability for cultivation in any region.

Dr. Ruma Bhattacharyya, Prof. and HoD, Dept. of Food Science and Nutrition, College of Community Science, Assam Agricultural University (AAU) delivered a special talk on 'Potential of millets (Nutritional Value, Nutraceutical and functional food) as well as awareness through social media' emphasizing on millets Nutraceutical information, nutritional compositions and their significance in our food habit, role of millets in curing various diseases, various products of millets, how to commercialize millet products and how to popularize our millets through social media.

While speaking on the occasion, Prof. Pinakeswar Mahanta, Director, National

MLA Kento Jini inaugurates children park at Ngomdir

AALO, Aug 19: Aalo East MLA Kento Jini on Thursday inaugurated a recreation site-cum-children's park at Ngomdir village in West Siang district.

As per reports, the recreation site-cum-children's park has been constructed by Ngomdir youth.

The inauguration ceremony was held in presence of Aalo East Upper ZPM Kenpi Loya Ngomdir.

A plantation programme was also conducted on the occasion at the village, said a statement.

The MLA-cum-Advisor to Law & Justice and Parliamentary Affairs also distributed free domestic LPG to the womenfolk of the village.

8 Kuki Tribal Union militants surrender in Assam

HAFLONG (Assam), Aug 19: Eight militants of the Kuki Tribal Union (KTU), including members of its armed wing, surrendered before security forces in Assam's Dima Hasao district on Friday, an official said.

The militants surrendered at the 11 Assam Rifles base camp at Sarkari Bagan area of the town, in presence of top security officials.

The group is mainly active in the Kuki-dominated area of Nagaland and Manipur, and Dima Hasao and Karbi Anglong in Assam, he said. (PTI)

Arunachal Photography Club plans to rope in youth to document State's culture, biodiversity

PASIGHAT, Aug 19: World Photography Day was observed by the Arunachal Photography Club with the theme: Wildlife Conservation and Global Warming at Pasighat, today.

Bengia Mrinal, president of the Club in his address to the gathering, highlighted the activities of the registered Club and its future plans to involve young minds to explore their hidden talent for documentation of the rich culture and biodiversity of Arunachal Pradesh.

A photo exhibition showcasing the rich biodiversity potential, portraiture, culture and landscape of the state was displayed at Serene Abode Hotel Conference Hall.

Thirty students of various schools of Pasighat participated in the workshop on 'Basics of Photography'.

Yingkiang SP Jumar

Basar attended the event as chief guest.

While addressing the students he encouraged them to take up photography as a professional career and contribute towards wildlife conservation and promote the rich cultural heritage and biodiversity potential of the state.

DFO, Pasighat Division Tashi Mize and Dr Kaling Megu, CMD, Healthcare Hospital also spoke on the efforts of the department in Wildlife Conservation and Impact of Global Warming, respectively.

A photo-walk with the participants on Street Photography was also conducted.

Prizes for 'Photo of the Day' and winners of the photography contest themed, 'Explore the Unexplored' were also announced and presented to the winners.

A photo of Nyiusa Village of Longding district by Tamir Tapak was adjudged as the winner and Lada Circle of East Kameng by Likha Lelly as runner-up. Dena Perme won the 'Photo of the Day' contest in Street Photography.

Capital DC inspects Govt HSS at Kankarnallah, announces to provide Rs 25 lakh within a week

Tok Tama to give back to its own school. ZPM Tok Tama, being a former student, donated 25 sets of desks and benches on behalf of the GHSS, Kankarnallah SMC. "This would go a long way in supporting the school to grow

Rajnath meets Manipur CM over breakfast

IMPHAL, Aug 19: Defence Minister Rajnath Singh met Chief Minister N Biren Singh over an elaborate dence in presence of Hon'ble Ministers, MLA, COAS and Senior party functionaries," he added.