NIT ARUNACHAL PRADESH

ABOUT ARUNACHAL PRADESH

Arunachal Pradesh, “the land of dawn-lit mountains” is one of the 29 states of India and is the north eastern state of the country. It is also known as the Orchid State of India or the Paradise of the Botanists. The entire terra firma falls under the eastern Himalayan landscape, a land of supreme natural beauty and rich ancient traditions. The altitudinal and climatic variation of the state results in a variety of landscapes and forests which harbour one of the planet’s great biodiversities. Astoundingly, in a single state as small as Arunachal Pradesh, about 90 different languages are spoken.

Tawang Monastery , located in Tawang city of Tawang district in the Indian state of Arunachal Pradesh is the largest monastery in India and second largest in the world after the Potala Palace in Lhasa, Tibet

The old village of the Apatani Tribe, Ziro is found in the mysterious state of Arunachal Pradesh in India. The area is famous for having pine hills and mountain rice cultivation. They practice permanent wetland cultivation in hill terrain by slicing the hills.

Adi dance varies from the slow , rustic and beautifully enchanting style Ponung to exhilarating, exuberant thumps of Delong. These dances have led to certain forms of dancing which jointly narrate a story

In India there are about 12000 species of Orchids known to occur, out of which as many as 610 species are found in Arunachal Pradesh alone
