Amendment: Declaration for PhD Thesis submission

For the “Plagiarism Report” of the Ph.D. thesis, the Ph.D. scholar requests for exclusion of the research articles published from the Ph.D. research work; as below:

- Only those papers which are authored by the both Ph.D. Scholar and Supervisor(s), where in Ph.D. scholar, who is submitting the thesis, is the first author, will be considered for “Exclude Sources” to generate the “Plagiarism Report” of Ph.D. thesis. Any other research paper will not be considered for “Exclude Sources” for the purpose of generating a Plagiarism Report.
- If there are other authors in addition to Ph.D. scholar and Supervisor(s), an Undertaking will be taken from the Ph.D. scholar and thesis Supervisor(s) stating that “Co-author(s) are part of this work and Co-author(s) do not have any objection on inclusion of this paper in Ph.D. thesis of the scholar”. A format of the Undertaking is annexed herewith (See Annexure-A below).

The list of publications from the Ph.D. work needs to be forwarded by the Supervisor(s) with a declaration that the Publications are from the Ph.D. work of the scholar. The list of the publications in Journals and conferences should have the web-link (URL) of the journal page / conference proceedings of the respective research article.

Plagiarism report at the time of thesis submission must be done at Central Library (CL) and same must be forwarded to academic section directly from CL. Supervisor/ Scholars must collect the same from CL for their record. Applicable to all on roll PhD students and newly joined students.

This is approved at 55th Senate under Agenda Item No: 55.22.
